

Articling Agrologist Program Overview

For A.Ags and Mentors

Establish a Mentorship Agreement

Fostering Professionalism

Articling Agrologist Program requirements

- Attend A.Ag. workshop on "The Profession of Agrology"
- Provide a brief oral report at branch meeting
- Meet with your mentor at least 2 times per year
- Attend a branch Annual General Meeting
- Volunteer at a branch/BCIA event or attend a branch executive meeting
- Attend a BCIA Annual General Meeting
- Attend a branch PD event

Continuing Professional Development

- Complete the "Professional Negligence and Regulatory Offences" webinar - Module 1 of Professional Liability
- Attend BCIA "Ethics for Professionals" workshop
- Document Continuing Professional Development online under member profile (Required minimum is 30 PD hours per year with a minimum total of 125 PD hours over 3 years)

Working in Agrology

- Document work experience in A.Ag journal
- Develop a Professional network (attend branch events)
- Work within your identified area(s) of practice

Articling Agrologist Program Completion

- Obtain two letters of reference from supervisors, clients, or any other professionals
- Obtain letter of recommendation from Mentor
- Submit A.Ag Program Review & A.Ag Checklist