

BCIA Honorary Registration

Council may award honorary registration, for life or such shorter time as council may determine, to any person who has made a substantial contribution to the profession of agrology or to the management, use, and conservation of British Columbia's natural resources.

2014 ... Her Honour, The Honourable Judith Guichon, OBC Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia