

Vancouver Branch

Free-Range Chicken Farm tour at Rabbit River Farms

Rabbit River Farms

17740 River Road

Richmond, BC V6V 1L9

Saturday April 15, 2023 10:00–11:00 am and 11:00am-12:00pm,

There are two tours, set one hour apart.

Please join us for a family friendly tour of Rabbit River Farms, Canada's first farm producing certified organic free-range eggs. Rabbit River Farms is dedicated to sustainable poultry farming with an emphasis on quality inputs, human health, sustainability, and the environment. The tour is planned to educate visitors on animal husbandry, including egg handling and washing practices.

Date: Saturday April 15th, 2023

Time:

- Two tours will be run, each approximately one hour long
- The first tour: 10:00am to 11:00am
- The second tour: 11:00am to 12:00pm

The Meeting Location for check-in will be inside the entrance to Rabbit River Farms at 17740 River Road, Richmond, BC.

For more information on Rabbit River Farms, please visit <http://www.rabbitriverfarms.com/>

Cost:

- 13 Years+: $10.00
- 3 – 12 years: $5.00
- 0 – 3 years: Free!

PD Hours: 1

Agenda: Please arrive at least 10 minutes before your tour time. Coffee and light snacks will be provided!

The capacity for each tour is 15 people, total capacity being 30 overall. This is a family friendly event – kids, friends and family outside the BCIA are welcome.

All registrations must be completed by end of day Thursday, April 13th.

Questions can be directed to: PD_Vancouver@email.bcia.com

What to wear:

- Weather appropriate clothing
- Rubber boots or waterproof shoes
 - Please do not bring footwear that has been recently used in another poultry farm, as cross-contamination between farms is a concern.
- As we will be around farming operations, masks are recommended but not required.

What to bring:

- Water
- Coffee/drink mug