BCIA Academic Worksheet

Applicants must include this worksheet with their official application package. Registration as an Articling Agrologist (A.Ag.) is granted upon a comprehensive and satisfactory course by course review by the Credentials Committee, of original transcripts from post secondary education(s). This form is only a working tool to assist the applicant in the application process.

Applicant Name	Email:
Provid	le course code and level in the spaces for each section (ex. Biol 321)
_	e courses that are considered entry level courses to the subject matter: (may tegory; cannot be double counted in the other sections of the worksheet)
Biology	Physics
Biochemistry	Ecology
Hydrology	Microbiology
Genetics	Computer Science
Chemistry
Earth Sciences	Geology
Hydrogeology	Economics
Statistics	Others
Physical Geography
	natural sciences and/or agriculture or resource economics that relate directly defined in the Agrologists Act . (www.bcia.com/about-bcia)
	•

Page 2
List a minimum of 11 courses at the 300 (3 rd year) level or above (can come from above list). Star (*) a minimum of 8 courses in natural sciences and/or agriculture or resource economics that relate directly to Agrology as defined in the Agrologists Act. (www.bcia.com/about-bcia)
☐ I have completed the required years of post secondary education(s) leading to a completed Bachelor's degree
☐ I have read BCIA's designated 38 areas of practice at http://www.bcia.com/professional_development.php . Identified area(s) of practice are declared annually and a member is expected to operate within those once accepted into the Institute.
Applicant Name:
Additional Comments:
Additional Comments.
Please upload this PFD form when completing your online application. If mailing in your application, please include a copy of this form.