

RICHARD SIMPSON

With over 40 years of experience in public policy, regulatory leadership, and strategic planning, Richard is a seasoned collaborator and advisor. He has held senior roles across government and regulatory bodies, including Interim Registrar/CEO of the College of Chiropractors and Registrar of the Emergency Medical Assistants Licensing Board. Known for innovative thinking and strong partnership, Richard is committed to evidence-informed decision making in the public interest.